Ideally located just off Centenary Square in Birmingham city centre, Edition's tier one location is second to none. Known as the cultural heart of the city, Centenary Square is home to the biggest library in Europe, Symphony Hall, and Birmingham Repertory Theatre.

A stone's throw from the city's most popular food and drink hotspots including Brindley Place, Broad Street and Alberts Schloss, Edition is also less than a 10-minute walk from three of the city's nine Michelin Star restaurants, Opheem, Adam's and Purnell's.

Just a one-minute walk away, the £700 million Paradise Birmingham regeneration scheme is the premiere business address with dramatic new office spaces to let, stunning public realm and enhanced infrastructure for the city.

A vibrant community within walking distance to every corner of the city centre and all transport links, Edition will quickly become Birmingham's most desired address. With limited supply of residential property for sale and hardly any remaining land to build on in the area, this is an opportunity not to be missed.
