One of the UK's best connected cities

Manchester is an exceptionally well-connected city and nowhere is that more apparent than when you are living in the centre.

At Vision, you're only a short walk away from the city's most popular attractions, amenities, universities and more. The site occupies one of the best locations in Manchester, and benefits from excellent public transport links. For example, the Metrolink tram network can be accessed via the Deansgate-Castlefield stop which lies opposite the building and provides access to a range of destinations across Greater Manchester including Altrincham, Didsbury and Manchester Airport.

Oxford Road and Deansgate train stations, as well as all of Manchester's major bus corridors, are within walking distance. Finally, Vision gives easy access to the city's inner ring road which connects directly to the national motorway network. The nearest junction of the A57(M) is just a few hundred metres to the south of Vision and, from here, all regional destinations are within an easy drive.

The city that has it all

Manchester has everything you could want and more. Outstanding connectivity, a culture that is second-to-none, excellent employment opportunities and a high end lifestyle.

Whether you want the best shopping opportunities, a buzzing food and drink scene, art galleries and museums, or anything else – Manchester has it all.

Indulge your passion

Manchester is internationally famous for its music scene – boasting everything from rock and indie to opera and the classics, across a range of world class venues.

Bridgewater Hall regularly hosts the Hallé, the BBC Philharmonic Orchestra and the Manchester Camerata, while the cavernous Manchester Arena routinely welcomes headline acts from the worlds of music, comedy and sport. It's the largest indoor venue in Europe and typically attracts over a million visitors every year.

In addition, the city boasts a wide range of museums, theatres, galleries and other cultural attractions, including the upcoming Factory, a world-class cultural space being built in the heart of the city. Linked to the vibrant, biennial Manchester International Festival, it is expected to attract 850,000 visitors every year.

MANCHESTER UNITED

The city with sport in its blood

Manchester is one of the world's most renowned sporting cities. Most famously, it is host to two leading football clubs – Manchester City FC and Manchester United – as well as Lancashire Cricket Club, one of the country's most venerable sporting institutions.

You will also find a thriving athletics scene based around Sport City, as well as the Velodrome, the Manchester Giants basketball team, the Aquatics Centre and much more.

If sport and spectacle are your passion, you'll be spoiled for choice in Manchester.

More than just bricks & mortar

Manchester's attractions go well beyond just its buildings, industry and employers.

The city is located in an area of considerable diversity, with parks and formal gardens, a newly revitalised urban realm, and access to some of the most beautiful countryside in Britain via the nearby Peak District and Lake District.

Within a few minutes' walk of Vision you can find Hulme Park, a large green space perfect for families, sports and relaxing on a sunny summer's day. The park is an ideal counterpart to the hustle and bustle of city centre life.

Why invest in Manchester?

From its origins as the world's first industrial city, Manchester has successfully reinvented itself for the 21st century and has become the UK's second city, and the country's top property hotspot.

A booming economy, a highly trained workforce and a rapidly growing population have created the conditions for Manchester to thrive.

Significant public and private investments into the city promise to keep the momentum going and ensure Manchester has an extremely positive future ahead. The dozens of large building projects planned and underway illustrate the health of the city and its position at the centre of the UK's fastest-growing region.

All of these factors have contributed to unprecedented growth in Manchester's housing market and make this the ideal time to invest in the city to secure reliable, long-term returns.

Manchester's booming property market

There is an unprecedented market for city centre living in Manchester. The latest figures from Rightmove show a 36% annual increase in demand, and data from Alliance City Living shows that competition for luxury city centre apartments is at a record high.

The market in Manchester not only met, but exceed all expectations over the last two years, and the stage is set for an even greater level of success in the future. Prospects for both capital appreciation and rental income are extremely strong, and the ongoing lack of supply ensures that these conditions will be in place for the long term.
